

Thank you for purchasing an Uuni!

Safety Legal Disclaimer

Please read the present legal disclaimer fully before assembling, installing and using/servicing your Uuni. Failure to comply with all the provisions of the present legal disclaimer could result in property damage, serious bodily injury or even death, or in a fire causing damage to property.

1. Uuni is designed for outdoor use only. Uuni must always be placed outdoors, away from structures and never inside a building or a garage or in proximity to any enclosed area. Place your Uuni on a sturdy, stable and non-flammable surface and keep it clear and free from flammable or combustible materials, gasoline and other flammable vapours and liquids.
2. Be aware of any local laws or regulations that may specify a required distance between outdoor cookers and any structures, or that may limit outdoor flame of any type during drought or fire hazard periods.
3. Do not install or use your Uuni in or on boats or recreational vehicles.
4. Do not use your Uuni in high winds.
5. Your Uuni is not intended to, and should never be used as a heater.
6. Toxic fumes can accumulate and may cause asphyxiation.
7. Flames can blow outside of the metal enclosure:
 - a. at the back where fire is;
 - b. from the top of the hopper when the lid is opened and pellets are low;
 - c. from the front of the oven when you open the door; or
 - d. from the top of the chimney.
8. Please keep away from the Uuni's openings and warn others around you.
9. Improper installation, adjustment, alteration, service or maintenance of your Uuni may cause injury or property damage. Therefore, do not use your Uuni unless it is completely assembled and all parts are securely fastened and tightened.
10. Your Uuni should be thoroughly cleaned and inspected on a regular basis.
11. The length of pellets used can greatly affect the temperature of your Uuni. The recommended pellet length should be no longer than 1.25" (3cm). Longer pellets have a slower feed rate which can cause your Uuni to burn colder. When changing or refilling pellets be aware of the average length and adjust your Uuni setting accordingly.
12. When using your Uuni, there is a risk for your hands to be burned. This is why you should at all times use protective heat resistant gloves to avoid burns and you should never set hot items on or near combustible surfaces. DO NOT touch any metal parts when your Uuni is operating. Only touch the two wooden handles to open the door and lift the hopper lid.
13. Never leave your Uuni unattended. Do not leave your Uuni unattended with the lid open while lit. Be aware of fire hazards (dry leaves, decking and other combustible materials) that may be in proximity to the Uuni while it is in use as they may present a fire hazard if any sparks are allowed to come into contact.
14. Keep all electrical cords away from your Uuni.
15. Uuni is to be used by responsible adults only.
16. Keep children, pets, and combustible items away from your Uuni at all times.
17. Do not attempt to move your Uuni when it is hot or while cooking.
18. DO NOT leave any hazardous objects such as lighters or barbecue lighting fluid next to your Uuni. Indeed, Uuni radiates heat to all directions.
19. Uuni remains hot even after visible flames have died down. Allow a minimum of 60 minutes for it to cool down once you are done using it. DO NOT cover the Uuni immediately after it has been used and make sure all the fire and glowing embers have disappeared from the burner before storing it.
20. The approximate temperature of your Uuni (when being used) ranges from 250°F (120 °C) to 840°F (450 °C).
21. Uuni is safe and hazard free when used as intended and according to safety guidelines, and will provide years of trouble-free use and enjoyment. It is the users' responsibility to maintain safe operation of the Uuni and to exercise reasonable standards of care at all times.
